

The Shaman Lady Revealed by Rosa Coeli (Part 1 of 3)

Her name is:

Mahtetyamay = 116

Other titles with equal value are:

GRANUM FUNDI - Seed of the foundation = 116

LUX OCCULTA - Hidden Light = 116

OMNIA IN LUX - All (are) in Light = 116

PRINCIPIUM - Principle; origin = 116

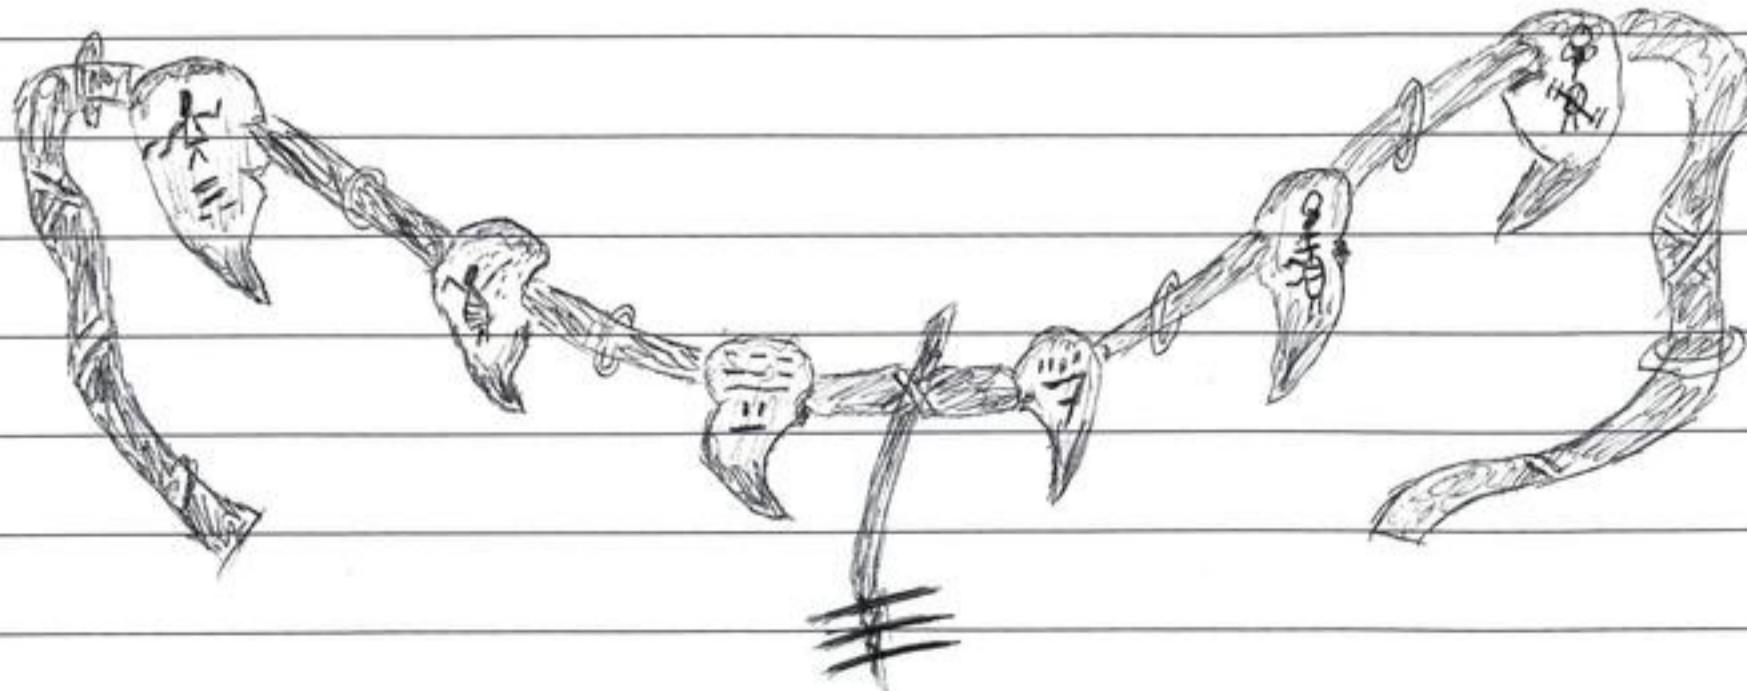

Broken down to a single digit:

$$1 + 1 + 6 = 8 ; \quad 8 = \text{The Great Number of Redemption}$$

8 is the number for Obatalá, one of the Seven African Powers who rules the mind, keeps the peace, maintains balance, and is the symbol of peace and purity.

The journey to obtain such knowledge took 3 days and 3 nights; 3 days of prayer, meditation, offering, sigil charging, chanting of the names of power, study and preparation; 3 nights of astral travel

This is that journey.

This necklace was placed around my neck as the strong hands of the Shaman Lady pulled me into her plane of existence. "Arise, young lioness, roar, and may the bush know that from henceforth it has a queen." She kissed me and then said, "It's about time you came to me. I've been waiting. Tonight is a day like any other, but it will see what no other day has seen." She cupped my head and pushed my hair behind my ears and kissed me once more, saying, "Come," at first I resisted, I said "I came to you; I have questions for you; I..." She merely interrupted me and said, "I know I know. I have something to show you, come," and as I stepped with her my attire changed and I was dressed in leatherskin sleeveless dress, and several bracelets were on my wrists, all colors of the rainbow "A single bracelet does not jingle, the sound will protect you for there are snakes that seldom bite a foot that does not walk, yet there are still some that will attack everybody." I was taken to a hut, once in it she took a pouch of sand from the wall and while spreading it out in a sigil shape she uttered the words, "tire nis, ijoba ati agbara naa, ati ogo, lai lai ati lai lai, been o je." I know now this to be the Yoruba language, then she spoke, "The night is potent. I have made us time, there are a few who don't want you to know", "Who?" I asked, "That will come later, first you must know your self, who you are." "who am I?", "You are she who can rule supreme at night, nocturnal powers, for you have had to work in secret for so long never having the chance to be free until you found your mother, she broke your first barrier, then Perdurabo broke your magickal barrier, and with this you were brought the knowledge of knowing you not only have the power to end life, but to create life as well." "why me? why have you come to me?" I asked. "Ah," she said, "Much you will learn I came to you my child because of the fact you are my child, long ago I was yet still am. You have the magick inside you from our teachings passed down through our blood, it flows in you." "So, why then are there things that don't want me here?" I asked, she answered, "Life hangs by nothing but a very fine thread, but all is intertwined here. Life has a cause and death has a cause. One comes from the other. Everything holds together. So when you begin to search to find yourself for your heritage is an important part of who you are, these things will bite for they will be brought discomfort because they are use to you not knowing. Once you know the lies told you hold no value, and have no strength, the false self is a destructive force. Sometimes we have multiple. You may still have had many for the darkness you have lived through. You will succeed, it's in your blood." It was then time for me to leave

• • •

This was the first night of my astral journeys. I will post the other two at a later date

Pg. 2
Poetic