

MY #BLACKLIVESMATTER SOUNDTRACK: Freedom Songs

Ojore Mckinnon

From behind the walls of San Quentin State prison, I extend a Black Fist salute to all those in the struggle across the United States, Standing Up for the Human Rights of Black Lives; and to the International Movement for Black Lives.

In every struggle and movement there is a soundtrack. This soundtrack speaks to the people, inspire the people and steel the people to confront the oppressive forces that will assault them mentally and physically, with the intent to break their will. The enslaved Afrikan, had the Spirituals; the Civil Rights Movement, had Protest Songs; the Black Power Movement, had Soul Music; the Hip-Hop Generation, has the Power of Conscious Rappers. The Spoken Word empowers the heart and mind to grow resilient. This Playlist is diverse, and an example of the depths of this ongoing struggle.

Dare to struggle, You can win!

"The Power is in the people and the politics we address." - Tupac

My #BlackLivesMatter Soundtrack

1. Fight The Power - Public Enemy
2. Therapy - Alas :
3. Crooked Cops - Geto Boys
4. I Wanna Kill Sam - Ice Cube
5. They Don't Give a Fuck About Us - Tupac
6. Which Side Are You On - Rebel Diaz
7. The Revolution - 16 Da Life

Hear Ojore Speak at: www.anchor.fm/justiceforojore

Donations: Paypal.com at justiceforojore@gmail.com

Maat Brand: Social Justice Merchandise at <https://shop.spreadshirt.com/free>

ojore