Subject: A Good Days!

God amazing
Even when I don't act like it
Just saying..

Yesterday

I got called back from work, my 1st thought was, "good I'm moving! Or packing up 2 leave this juvenile facility!" However after a 2 foot run I was told that it was 4 HSU!

Good. That meant the dentist was gone either cap or pull the tooth on the lower right side that's driving me insane n forcing me 2 eat pretty much 99% of my food on the right side of my mouth! Yikes!

At HSU I waited n watch the dentist call 4 several other men including "the last person on the list." Didn't recognize the name, cause it wasn't mines! That's odd?

Maybe this a trick!

Sometimes an HSU "appointment" is really a meeting with the big wigs n some kinda investigation!

Had 2 go through that like my 3rd week here!!!

NEway eventually the nurse comes out n politely yells my name!

That's odd!

Wonder what this is 4?

I stepped In n she took my vitals. Must b a TB test! though I had taken one Monday, I allowed it! Maybe she was gone give me a Reynaud's test n this was the pregame warm up?

Nope!

Come 2 find out I been exposed 2 the Covid!

Who would of thunk it?

So she did the swab test

One that went deeper than the 1st one the National Guard did. Thing went so far up my nose swear she took some of my thoughts

"What was I thinking about?!?"

I was then informed the test usually come back in 24 hrs n the famous line "no news is good news!"

Course news quickly spread n I told 2 people soon they asked, "Hey Mrf?"

"Yup"

1 guy was my celly, who I know was put up 2 it by my other 2 roommates! Could tell they were upset I didn't tell them immediately afterwards. But though we share a room that's all we share. Plus I told them n their sudden interest in me that I have the right 2 tell people my business if n when I want 2!

Ain't like being exposed 2 the virus an easy thing 2 process. Gotta deal with potentially being quarantined in the room no less with 3 people u don't get along with! Reason I told em, I don't have it but just in case u all might want 2 go 2 set now, so I ain't gotta b stuck in here with y'all n vice versa

Mind u I tryd 2 move days ago but nothing!

When I was asked who told me I don't have Covid I told em "God" ( psalm 91:5-6) Yup I got faith in him even when I am tempted 2 misbehave . true story.

Well its 11:46 pm n I ain't been quarantined

Smile

N though the nurse said "no news is good news" I kinda want some news 2 tell me of the good news. Some closure. Some words:"u passed the test."

Seems like a common courtesy

(What u think?)
