NOW, Thank You Soooooo much for Your comment, You are so on point, and our aim is to help all of us so that we fail none. In my youth, ignorance and past angry state of Mind, I too misused the innocence of Guns, So I make it a point to tell people that at 16 years old, I stole a gun from my elderly Aunt, and stole the life of an older Man, I didn't need Gun regulations, or "Gun Control" I needed "Self Control". I talk to youth who are on the road back into society, on my own, in private, as being responsible is not a program, being responsible is human, so, yeah, thank You for Your Human Comment because I'm going to read it to a young man tomorrow on the yard.
Yeeeeeeeah 😊.
