Of course I was tempted to jump on this gravy train and purchase my own "Care-Package(s)", since everything seems legit - on the surface, as you'll see by the attached. Except of course the 1040 Tax Return, chaining $1.00 (taxable) income, would be fraud! My "Income in 2019 (attached) was not taxable, so I hardy think I qualify for "relief".

CoVID RELIEF $ FOR PRISONERS?

Well, maybe, but it's not a done deal. In March, at the start of the CoVid marathon, the US Congress passed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act ("CARES Act"), providing emergency relief to eligible individuals officially via of a tax credit for 2020. The Act instructed the IRS to issue advance refunds to eligible individuals as rapidly as possible, and most Americans got $1,200 per person.

However, IRS took the position that incarcerated individuals were not eligible for what was essentially an advance tax refund. Recently, on September 24, 2020, a federal court ruled that the IRS's position was likely unlawful (The case is Scholl v. Mnuchin, No. 4:20-cv-5309-PJH (N.D. Cal.) and ordered the IRS to stop denying payments to people solely because they are incarcerated. The court further ordered the IRS to make payments within 30 days to those who were previously denied one because they were incarcerated.

While there is bound to be more action on this, for now, it is an actual court ruling. Those who qualify must:

Have been incarcerated since March 27, 2020

Be a U.S. Citizen or Legal Permanent Resident;

Not be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return; and,

If you are married or if you have qualifying children, your spouse and your children have a valid Social Security Number. This restriction does not apply if you or your spouse served in the Armed Forces in 2019.

While these 'deals' are usually heavily weighted on the 'scam' side of the scale, this one, at least at this point, seems based on a legitimate court decision. If this will actually come to pass remains to be seen. How to find out and, if real, claim your part of the 'free' money? Well, that will probably take some help from outside contacts with access to the internet. And, you must act by October 15. That's right, your claim has to be filed in the next two weeks.

Have your friends/family access the following 2 websites, for more information, and, just possibly, Those sites are: https://www.irs.gov/coronavirus/non-filers-entersome financial remuneration. payment-info-here, to file a claim or https://www.lieffcabraser.com/cares-act-relief/ for more information.

Will this work? Dunno. But it isn't illegal to try. Ah, but when 55% is taken for Restitution/Fines, and Fraud is later claimed by IRS for everyone exempt from this CARES ACT, i.e. everyone imprisoned BEFORE 3/27/20, they'll be required to repay the entire amount back to IRS, and be charged for Fraud!

Stupid Criminals are all excited about receiving $1200 (minus 58% $540), since they've been in prison since March 27, 2020 (and for the previous number of years!).

Years!).
Stupid Criminals filing a 1040, claiming $1 for 2019, expecting 1200

file Tax Return Forms, in order to extort 55% Restitution from Federal coffers, but live sounded the abarm to stupid criminals to no avail — who all think I'm stupid for not filing — so once again I'm outnumbered.

I suppose that's what makes me stand out in a crowd.

Now if anyone out there who has legally received their stimulus check and would like to contribute to purchasing a care-package for one of the few honest prisoners left in the system, Live posted my Wish List recently and patiently await for my name to be called to pickit up. E. Thank You.

Hello from Power Blossoms!

Important news:

A major lawsuit, Scholl v. Mnuchin, has ordered that prisoners be considered eligible for the Covid-19 stimulus check. (This is the "Economic Impact Payment" that the IRS has now sent to most people in the country, as directed by the CARES Act earlier this year.) The decision from this lawsuit overrules whatever you might have been told by your facility previously!

In order to receive this $1,200 check, you must fill out the enclosed Form 1040 right away, then make sure it gets to the post office to be postmarked by October 30th. (You might have heard of other deadlines, but this is the official one from the court!) Fines and fees might be taken out of the $1,200.

It should take 4-6 weeks for the IRS to get your check to your facility, though they are working through a large backlog. You can ask someone with internet access to check the status of your payment at www.IRS.gov/getmypayment or call the IRS for help at 1-800-919-9835 (but expect long wait times).

We do not know exactly what will happen once the check reaches the prison; however, Daniel Ross, Associate Warden of the CDCR, told the Statewide Inmates Family Council (SIFC) recently that now "CDCR should... deposit them." We've learned from our research that, according to regulation 15 CA ADC § 3140:

Mailroom staff shall deliver all... welfare and/or tax refund checks to the Inmate Trust Office. The Accounting Officer shall notify the facility representative that checks are being held pending determination of eligibility of the inmates to receive the checks... Funds shall not be released for spending by the inmate for thirty (30) days from the date of deposit into the inmate trust account.

- If you're getting out in the next few months, here's more from CA regulations: "Mail received for inmates who have been paroled shall be forwarded to the office of the parole region to which the inmate was released, or if unable to locate the parolee, the check should be returned to the originating state or federal agency."
- If your facility refuses to deposit your check, you will likely have to work with someon on the outside to access the funds—but that's beyond what we have room to discuss here.

Our assumptions about you in giving advice here:

- · You have a Social Security Number (and know what it is).
- You made less than $12,000 last year.
- No one else is claiming you as a dependent on their taxes. (Since the government is paying to house and feed you, it's our understanding that no family member can say you are financially dependent on them—even if they give you money or buy you packages!)

On the following sheet of paper is a filled-out example Form 1040 for you to model yours after, along with detailed instructions at the bottom of both sides of the page. (Read carefully!) Finally, we've included two blank copies of Form 1040: one for you to fill out and return right away, and the other for you to give to a friend or make copies of to distribute. (If your facility has a law library, it should also be able to provide copies of Form 1040 to people. Just make sure to write "EIP 2020" at the top of each one!)

Once you have completed Form 1040, mail it ASAP to this address:

ou might have beend of other deadlines, but the best light

And remember—your envelope must be postmarked by Saturday, October 30th. Send it early so that it has time to reach the post office!

This deadline is tight and there remain some unknowns—we aren't accountants or tax attorneys—but we hope you're able to return this form and receive your check. Please do not return your form to us or write us with questions about this process. We can't file your form for you and we will not have time to answer your questions before the filing deadline. We're crossing our fingers for you!

P.S. We apologize if you've sent us mail previously and are waiting to hear back from us. As we're completely volunteer-run and funded by small community donations, it's been tough to respond as quickly as we would like. We're aiming to reply to you soon!

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THIS PAGE: Be sure to write in pen.

1) Put an "X" on your Filing Status. (It is most likely Single or Married filing separately).

For Disclosure, Privacy Act, and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice, see separate instructions.

Single is the typical status if you aren't legally married, or are divorced or legally separated under state law.

If you are married: Married filing jointly is if you are filling out this form together. Married filing separately is if you are filling out separate forms.

Form 1040 (2019)

Head of Household is if you aren't married, and pay more than half the cost of keeping up a home for a dependent (child, parent etc.)

Qualifying Widow(er) is if your spouse has died within the past 2 years, and you are paying for a child.

- 2) Fill in your Name, Social Security Number, and prison address. See the second page of this letter to decide which address to use. Include your DOC # (A12345 in the example) in the address line in case there are multiple people with your name.
- 3) If you make less than $12,200 as an individual or $24,400 as a married couple:

Write $1 in Sections 2b, 7b, and 8b.

Write $0 in Section 11b.

4) Do not fill in any other lines. (And again, please do not contact Power Blossoms with questions about this process.)

FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS ABOVE TO FILL OUT BOTH SIDES OF THE FORM ON THE NEXT PAGE IN PEN, AND MAIL IT TO THE IRS!

Before you fill out the form, consider making copies for others.

A FEDERAL COURT HAS ORDERED THAT THE IRS MAY NOT DENY CARES ACT ECONOMIC IMPACT PAYMENTS TO ANYONE SOLELY BECAUSE THEY ARE INCARCERATED

If you are or were incarcerated at some point since March 27, 2020, you may need to take action by October 15, 2020 to receive a payment.

In March 2020, Congress passed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act ("CARES Act"). The Act provides emergency relief to eligible individuals in the form of a tax credit for 2020. The Act instructs the IRS to issue advance refunds to eligible individuals as rapidly as possible.

The IRS previously took the position that people who are incarcerated are not eligible for advance refunds. On September 24, 2020, a federal court ruled that the IRS's position was likely unlawful. The case is Scholl v. Mnuchin, No. 4:20-cv-5309-PJH (N.D. Cal.). The court ordered the IRS to stop denying payments to people solely because they are incarcerated, and ordered the IRS to make payments to people who were previously denied one because they were incarcerated within 30 days.

Who is eligible for an Economic Impact Payment?

You are eligible if all of the following are true:

You are a U.S. Citizen or Legal Permanent Resident;

You were not claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return; and,

If you are married or if you have qualifying children, your spouse and your children have a valid Social Security Number. This restriction does not apply if you or your spouse served in the Armed Forces in 2019.

If I am eligible, how much will my payment be? If you meet the criteria above, your payment will be up to $1,200 if you filed individually or $2,400 if you filed jointly with a spouse, plus $500 per qualifying child. Your payment will be reduced by 5% of income you received in 2019 above: $150,000 for joint filers, $112,500 for a head of household, and $75,000 in all other cases.

What do I need to do to receive a payment? It depends:

If you filed a 2018 or 2019 tax return, or if you receive Social Security Benefits or Railroad Retirement Benefits, you do not need to take any action. You should receive an automatic payment in the mail.

If you did not file a 2018 or 2019 tax return and your income was below $12,200 (or $24,400 if filing jointly), but you are an eligible individual as defined above, you must take action by October 15 to receive an advance payment. If you have access to the Internet, you can file a claim at the following URL:

www.irs.gov/coronavirus/non-filers-enter-paymentinfo-her

Alternatively, you can file a claim using the enclosed paper form, by mail postmarked on or by October 15.

Frequently Asked Questions About CARES Act Relief for Incarcerated People

Please be aware that the deadline and the entire process for how to get CARES Act relief funds was set by the government. The Equal Justice Society and Lieff Cabraser's role was bringing a lawsuit to ensure that the government didn't prevent incarcerated people and their families from participating in a benefit intended for all Americans. (The answers below were edited slightly by Black & Pink to apply to our members).

1. What are the benefits available?

Eligible individuals can receive up to $1,200 per person, or $2,400 for married couples filing jointly, plus $500 per qualifying child.

2. How do I know if my children qualify as dependents for purposes of the claim form?

According to the IRS, your children only qualify for a payment if they were age 16 or younger on December 31, 2019, and if they lived with you for more than half of 2019.

- 3. Does it cost anything to file a Form 1040 claim with the IRS? No.
- 4. Am I eligible? You are eligible to file a claim if you satisfy all of the following requirements:
- · You are a U.S. Citizen or Legal Permanent Resident
- You are not married to someone who lacks a social security number, or have a child who lacks one, UNLESS you or your spouse served in the Armed Forces in 2019
- You filed a tax return in 2018 or 2019 or you were exempt from doing so because your income in 2019 was below $12,200 a year or, if married and filing jointly, below $24,400
- · You were not claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return
- 5. What if I entered prison before ever holding a paid job or filing any tax documents on the outside am I still eligible?
 Yes, so long as you meet the other general eligibility requirements listed above in Question 4.
- 6. If I am on parole, supervised release, released from all restrictions, and/or my record has been expunged, can I make a claim? Yes. If you meet the other requirements set forth in Questions 4 and 5 above.

7. What is the filing deadline?

The IRS has currently set a deadline of October 15, 2020 to file a claim. This means that claims must be postmarked (if mailed) on or by October 15. (There may be an extension, so still file the form even if you miss the current deadline).

8. How do I file a claim?

If you filed a 2018 or 2019 tax return or receive Social Security Benefits or Railroad Retirement Board Benefits, you do not need to file a claim. However, if you did not file a 2018 or 2019 tax return and your income was below $12,200 (or $24,400 if filing jointly) in 2019, then you should mail in the Form 1040.

- 9a. Where do I mail my completed form? The address will vary depending on where you live. See the chart on the second page.
- 10. Can I file a claim if I had no earnings? Yes. You are eligible for an advanced payment even if you had zero income in 2019.

12. Can I make a claim if I do not have a bank account?

Yes. Just leave blanks in the "refund" section (lines 20-22) on the claim form, which ask for routing and account numbers. The IRS has indicated it will mail checks to people without bank accounts.

13. What do I do if I get a refund check but I am incarcerated?

Please check with your facility to understand its rules on how government tax refund checks will be distributed. For example, certain California rules (15 CA ADC § 3140) provide that:

"Mailroom staff shall deliver all received. . . tax refund checks to the Inmate Trust Office. The Accounting Officer shall notify the facility representative that checks are being held pending determination of eligibility of the inmates to receive the checks. The facility representative shall notify the appropriate agency. . . .

"Funds shall not be released for spending by the inmate for thirty (30) days from the date of deposit into the inmate trust account and must have cleared the bank upon which they were drawn. When any personal check, money order, cashier's check, certified check, or any other negotiable instrument is received, the face of the envelope in which the funds were received shall be imprinted with a stamp indicating the funds have been accepted at this time. This stamp is not intended to indicate that the funds are immediately available for inmate use, but only that the funds were accepted for processing by the department."

14. What do I do if I applied for a stimulus check before September 24 and it was rejected, or what do I do if the check was intercepted or returned?

The court order directs the IRS to automatically re-process these claims by October 24, 2020. If you do not receive your payment by November 1, 2020, and do not see it scheduled on the IRS website, please contact the law firm through the website below:

The Effects of the Coronavirus

By William Goehler Mule Creek State Prison

HE COVID-19 CRISIS certainly has caused a lot of grief around the world, and our hearts go out to everyone who has been affected. As prisoners, we empathize with all the people required to stay at home by emergency decree. And, while it has been difficult for us to be away from work or school, it is hardly comparable to the difficulties experienced by citizens out in the real world who are not used to being on "lockdown." Nevertheless, every crisis presents opportunities for us to decide how we'll handle it. In this spirit, a poll of the population on Facility A asked the question: How are you surviving the COVID-19 ordeal? Here are some remarks:

- I try to stay busy and keep my mind off it.
- Staying busy has helped me survive the uncertainty and confusion.
- I'm used to it after being locked up for 26 years.
- It's true that we are socially adapted to this form of existence because [of] where we are. I think it is important for us to share our wisdom with our loved ones of how to cope with it, and [to] show empathy towards them.
- Though I can see that a lot of people are really stressed at this time, we are seeing some really good things emerge in response to these difficulties, i.e., families spending more time together and society expressing more empathy for the less fortunate, etc.
- Trying to stay positive and talking with family.
- Day-by-day normal program.
- Hanging out with my buds and staying in a positive mindset this too shall pass.
- No problem. I've gone through a lot worse.
- Other than worrying about my family, it doesn't affect me.
- It is what it is. It doesn't affect us because we are already in a controlled environment.

The thing for us to remember during this crisis is that we are all in this together and many people are experiencing a new level of anxiety they are not accustomed to. Have patience.
