Dear 'Tropical Storm' Julia,

11-12-20

Howdy again and Happy Holidays! It's always great to hear from you!

I may have mentioned this before, but one thing on my 'Bucket List' is to see the tulips in bloom in the Netherlands - although it's unlikely in this lifetime.

"Fresh new virus?" You're right - "Ouch!" We definitely don't need anything else after this horrible year. And now that it's getting colder, things are getting worse and worse. How awful! I just can't believe this keeps dragging on and on. I need fresh air!

Please take care of yourself! Stay healthy & many blessings to you!

Best wishes,
