Subject: I'm Back Uplifted

2day was a good day!

Stuck 2 my initial desire 2 do a lil work out seeing our shower time would b @ 8am!. So @ 6 I did some stretching ever so softly as 2 not wake 2 of my cellys! After minutes of that I did 1 set of side leg raises n was bout 2 start calf raises when the delivery of breakfast bags interrupted me. Yet made me smile when I seen 2 pieces of bread, normally we get one! N though 2 boiled eggs woulda been a great post work out meal I gave em 2 my roomy! Like protein but I prefer not 2 eat ice cold boiled eggs! He gave me his powdered donut so work 4 me! Once my other celly finished using the desk as a table I pushed in the stool n took care of my bizz! More side leg raises - my hips need it - more calf raises, some side bends, some lunges, n finally some sit ups of sorts. Did 100 of each! N made it 2 the shower at bout 7:15! But not b4 getting my canteen. BBQ chips didn't come but its a dollar saved!

By like 8 I was feasting on the 3 small bowls of cereal I saved up, 2 donuts, a green apple, n a pb n jelly sandwich, unable 2 drink milk I had water on the side! Ain't nothin 2 it, grew up eating cereal n water! Kids gotta eat!!! Thankful I had enuff time 2 get more water so I could make some Sunny D mixed with ice cold orange juice! Work 4 me.

Let my food digest 4 bout an hour than pulled myself outta bed n determined 2 get some of my correspondence course done! Glad I did as God highlighted a point in the syllabus. Basically I gotta go 2 "war" if I want 2 get back what the devil stole from me. Matthew 11:12 n Genesis 14 (Abram had 2 go 2 war 2 get his family back) Thoughts surfaced of how the devil stole my personality! Used 2 smile n b full of live but overtime being victimized n put down had me harden my heart. Time 4 a change.

"God help me walk in Jesus love. Already getting mean mugged n picked on n circled by sharks! But what else is new? Help me turn the other cheek. N focus on my calling n purpose."

Did my homework while dabbling on my daughters apology poem. 10:45 I got in bed n waited 4 lunch

Not much 4 ground up meat (hidden treasure's) so I gave the sandwich away. Nothing left but sunchips n a cookie. So b it. Thankful I gotta extra bag of chips.

Bored I did a short prayer, then turned on the TV. Normally doing what I do. check the menu up 2 like 10pm! Nothing on all day! sports but I'm starting 2 get over them n TV in general. Still I decided 2 keep flipping. Who would of thunk that I would land on QVC! Had 2 b the T-shirts!!! Long story short, they were by Candace Cameron Bure, who played DJ on Full House n who I had a crush on! "AJ n DJ sitting in a tree..." Any who she a Christian n just put out a clothing line of inspiration t-shirts, she also had a journal n esv Bible with a devotional in it. Listening 2 the segment gave me hope as I'm working on compiling a book of upbeat life inspiring quotes, come 2 think of it each one could b a stand alone shirt! even a QVC one! Also thought of trying 2 get on QVC 2 sell my shirts n the devotional/journal I'm set 2 get published immediately upon release. Got super excited when the host mentioned she was Christian n does devotions with her kids n journals. Oh a potential customer! Just like Candace this woman Kiersten? was gorgeous n married. This fact kept me inspired regarding marrying a beautiful Christian woman, who has a lovely attitude, elegant femininity n spiritual priorities, one who can help me grow in my relationship with Christ... In my own journal I logged how QVC was Christian friendly! not sure bout the felon part!!!

Ensuingly i watched a lil bit of Different Strokes, college football, college basketball, n Corrupt Crimes, even a show called Mastermind's. Bored I turned the TV off n just laid there b4 deciding 2 finish 2 cross necklaces n pieces 4 a bear!

Wow! 4 o'clock time 2 eat!

good something I can stomach. Pastrami n cheese sandwich, strawberry jello cup, cup! of pineapple, bag of Lays potato chips! I ate it all including the extra jello n pineapple. Capped it off with a pb cookie I saved from earlier.

No time 2 let my food digest got half hour day room at 5pm n I desperately want 2 get a hold of my daughter!

No luck

so I called my brother, my best friend,...

no luck, no luck...

Then God was able 2 tell me who 2 call

Gene.

Soon he answered I thanked him 4 blessing me with some funds. I then spoke on how we might b off lockdown on Monday n the pros n cons of it from my perspective. Look more 4ward 2 school n work than working out. Need all the computer lessons I can get! Outdated program or not!

At some point I told him of a reentry place in his hometown. Said he heard of em n that he plugged with them n will b speaking at they graduation thing this coming week. Also told me they looking 2 expand into my hometown- Racine! Work 4 me! More hope is birthed! Especially after he told me they mess with people who really living life/run businesses etc. Yeah I'm on that. Been entrepreneurial since I was lil just saving money was my problem. After bout 10 minutes of this I told him bout the whole QVC encounter. That changed everything!

Told me bout his seeing the clothing line of a guy who just got outta prison! (More hope)

Got better as he stipulated his knowing people who could help me 2 the same n that he'd love 2 b a part of it!!!

What R the odds?

Went from seeing a clothing line on QVC 2 envisioning maybe mines being on there one day 2 my calling Gene n him telling me things R in place if I'm serious bout being a fashion designer/entrepreneur!!! Told him all my designs at home just waiting on me 2 get there!

What R the odds Im spose 2 see parole one of these days n now got something new 2 share.

They definitely want 2 know U gotta job waiting on U/R employable.

Boy am I!?!?

What R the odds QVC had a Bible, devotional, journal also advertised along side the shirts?

What R the odds I design shirts, wrote a devotional/journal prayerfully considering doing a bible with commentary so as 2 alloy biblical truths 2 our daily lives especially Proverbs 4:23

What R the odds a Christian reentry organization looking 2 come 2 my hometown? Can tell they got good programs n support but I planned 2 miss out as I'd b unable 2 faithfully make the commute from Racine 2 Milwaukee everyday!

God up 2 something its 12:22am!

N 4 the last thing

seeking 2 find one song on the tablet led me 2 another!

guy I never heard of but I love the songs title

Tryin 2 get Home

might buy it just cause of that

plus I like Lyfe Jennings who sings the chorus

Oops almost 4got

I write music n my guy just met a music producer!

I'll b a ghost writer yet

Amen 2 that

While searching 4 designs

I bumped into a book

Rescued Not Arrested

Had it 4 like over 3 years,still ain't read it

But God telling me

"its time"

I didn't listen

so later when I had 2 go in my foot locker

He showed up again!

I listened this time

Though I don't like how its written in the 3rd person

I know there's a message in there god wants 2 give me

Already me n the guy have being honor roll students in common,
pride as well...

Maybe his story will bring a 4gotten story of mines 2 the surface that needs 2 b in my own memoir!

Maybe god gone use it 2 inspire me 2 write! As of late I haven't just sat down n done it or allowed myself 2 focus on it. I tend 2 blame my busy environment n lack of space,solitude But I have the strength of mind 2 overcome it

Did it b4

N right at the end of the day I found the manuscript 4 the book of quotes that could easily b put on shirts as well,well as other things!

God positioning me 4 something

N it was a great day

cause

my eyes n ears n heart
able 2 perceive it
n receive it

So B it
