"I WILL LOVE YOU TOMORROW"

IN DEDICATION TO MY PUERTO RICAN GODDESS.....

I wanted to remind you that you are amazing, magnificent, and extraordinary.....

I wanted to remind you that you are respected, appreciated, and adored.....

I wanted to remind you that your beauty captivates my vision, and your personality intrigues me.....

I wanted to remind you that I'm attracted to the kindness of your heart, and attached to the beauty of your spirit.....

I wanted to remind you that it is your radiance and love that brings "sunlight" to my dark days, and fills my skies with stars on dark nights.....

I wanted to remind you that I loved you yesterday as much as I love you today, and if my heart continues to beat, then "I WILL LOVE YOU TOMORROW".
