When someone dies in prison the prison tries to notify the persons family or love one if the person hasn't kept the address or phone # up or they don't want the body the DOC prison system keeps it, has it cremated and I guess stores it somewhere that means that person will never stop doing time - I know I've been a bad person most of my life but no one deserves that.

It rained a lot yesterday/last night, I've been keeping the fan going to dry things off, it still feels damp. It's not cold, not hot but not cold I'm fully dressed. Some days you feel like doing some days you don't. Just kicked back yesterday with a blanket over my legs + feet watching the football - maybe do something today, I am up and ready - almost got this patterned laid out ready to put paint on and I need to get started on the autobiography they want us to do for one of the classes I'm doing in groups - got an outline started for my childhood years - I'm not going to do too much - I started doing something like this for myself earlier in the year. I would like to get off this CTQ before my B-day this Friday 😊 Eyes are blurry right now.

We did another Covid test here yesterday so it looks like at least a few more days CTQ, Monday maybe - before Christmas I hope. Remember when I started to work on doing my autobiography back in the Spring. I didn't get very far on that one 😊. Now they want all of us to write bio. in the drug group I'm in. I never really got started before because I was always sick in pain and out seeing doctors. I've got a couple of pages done. They gave me a print out on what to think about. Family growing up, childhood & teen years, drug use, criminal conduct and a whole lot of other personal stuff. I started 3 drafts yesterday, childhood - I lucky to get through that, teen years - I know I wasn't supposed to make 21 but I did, and adult - why am I alive? I've got 5 or 6 pages laid out right now. I think they only want about 30. I got a B-day and X-mas card from my Mel. Merry Christmas - you are my best none lover friend, my sister my family. You have always had hope for me no matter how bad I was. I also got a lot of messages from the blog. Thank you everyone. I want to wish everyone a Merry Christmas if I haven't already done it. I was out of it for awhile there Pain, Medications, Out everyday seeing doctors & nurses - not able to think, on Quarantining I'm still in pain but the messages make me want to get some ^{things} done. If I make mistakes, forget something, repeat myself, I'm still in pain. I must have had some charity - the poem - love notes; I ramble in the journal but then that's what it's for - to spell into the darkness. Now let me give a big thank you to everyone at Between the Bars for caring and all the work yours doing. My love I got two notes from you. There were parts that made me want to cry tears of happiness. I can close my eyes now and feel you here with me your body pressed against mine. I love you and you can hear me whispering it in your ear all through the night & day. I will answer them in a love note. I will try to call you tomorrow, we're still on lock down but every few days we message calls & showers 😊 don't want to be too clean. rteslyar thank you I'm glad you enjoy the poetry. for your post, maidawoodard thank you for your note, I'm glad you enjoy the notes I hope you will continue to read them and share; bostona - thank you for reading my poetry I hope you'll continue to read them and share them with friends. myp888 goblinsark; thank you for your post, I am glad you enjoyed my love notes and have you continue to read them and share them with a friend. sejoia; thank you for your post. sefaith; thank you for your post. taking the bad odor out of the air, I got another message letter to. I want to thank everyone again ⁸⁴⁹⁹ and Lana, hanalieber I'm glad you enjoyed reading them and hope you will continue. I'm looking forward to the new year and getting this Covid behind us.

I'm under 180 lb right now and the past I dared only dream of that now I worry about it I think with this high cal + puree diet I can maintain this weight for awhile. Reading the Excerpt from some of my old Love Note - you're right they are pretty good they even made my eyes moist up \heartsuit and I wrote them \smile Do you remember?? So one of the nurses told me why I'm having trouble getting going with anything or concentrating, the low oxygen level. I've been having on and off for some time now. 92% today - the dump ass nurse this morning tried to ~~put~~ manipulate it after messing with it a few minute she managed to get it to stop at 94 for a second, yesterday it was 89% and the nurse understood why I'm only working on 75% of my lungs. Anything under 95% is no good, dangerous but right is not a good time to complain end up in a lock down unit \smile .
