Hello Ahentz,

(Dec. 28, 2020)

It doesn't appear like there's been any meaningful continuity in communication during the pandemic lockdown. Glad you liked the oysters and pearls. One of the few times I get to use oil pastels. We have to be supervised when we use those. Now we're locked down tight. About 150 staff and inmates infected with covid in this prison. So ~~these~~ luxuries like oil pastels for convicts not a big priority!

Can you tell that way back long ago before prison I use to dive for lobsters close to shore? I had tanks, but I usually didn't use them, (they're heavy). I'd just hold my breath at low tide. I miss all that severely.
