Marsha,

Thank u 4 taking valued moments of ur lifetime 2 transcriptioning my writings. As of late seems people R enjoying them,which still baffles me! Yesterday found out a stranger likes my writings n visited Between the Bars! Upon hearing bout this visit I warmly smiled.

Smiled as well when I got Ur comments. Thank U. Thanks 4 ur hope regarding the Keanu Reeves movie! Thought it was called White Samurai yet the movie buff I spoke with told me the name is "47 Ronin". It was alright sorta of entertaining, yet the lesser of 2 evils,as nothing else was on regular TV. No such thing as cable here! N u can't even get all the free channels! Anyway wouldn't watch the movie if I had another chance,just not my cup of tea. Seems I more into documentary like the one I seen on PBS last night entitled " A Place 2 Stand"

It was bout an Arizona prisoner,Jimmie Baca who survived prison by engaging in violence but would eventually come 2 survive this underworld by writing,an act he started after a member of a church reached out 2 him. Eventually he got released n continued 2 pursue his career, via memoir, essays,plays, collections of poetry. He even goes back inside prisons 2 teach writing.
