Dear B+B,

Well its a Year Anniversary for me today, I'm a former Deathrow inmate I was Blessed to get off Texas Condemn man list in 2012, in 2015 I signed for 2-life sentences... Was it Beneficial Yes I would agree... I was given the opportunity to get a job, I work in Laundry 1st Shift here at the French Robertson Unit

When I was moved from the Wynne Unit as I didn't know then as I do now... Prison doesn't change its about how you change yourself... I write less of now, I was writing a few I picked up as I was transferred I was on two other units that were closed... More and more Tdcj units don't have enough officers to run it they close the doors which is a blessing, there is only one deathrow... Prisoners' Always ask me what it was like I'd tell them its like a waiting game... everyday for those 12 1/2 years I waited til someone knocked on my cell telling me pack up your being moved but that day never came... Why?

Some one higher up told me I would be taken off, that day came in June 2012... have I thought about it...
