Dearest Julia

Received Ur comments on January 19

(I'm sending this on the 22nd!)

Glad 2 b made aware of the fact that u received my written correspondence. Happy all the nuances of time meshed together n U were able 2 get instant gratification regarding my latest Parole hearing!

I echo ur "wow" sentiments!!!

Still trying 2 wrap my mind n heart n soul n spirit around it...

Definitely didn't get NE easier!!!

More tests.

More enemies.

More turning the other cheek.

More irritations n frustrations.

(More in my next letter 2 u)

Meanwhile my biggest thing now is

WHEN?

As of yet I still don't have an exact Date of Release!

Prayed on it n

MARCH 15

Keep coming 2 me

Though I pray 2 go home sooner

Only so much prison I can take!

Wanted 2 get transfered still, but seems I'll b going home from here!

So now the biggest thing is

HOW WILL I GET HOME?

Lil brother offered 2 take off work 2 come get me

Its like an 8 hour round trip!!!

Lotta gas! Might have 2 pack a change of clothes!!! Pack a suitcase!

Always have thee option of taking the bus!

Which is better?

I don't know.

Kinda want my brotha 2 b my ride, so I can have him possibly film my release (reminds me I have 2 buy a copy of my parole hearing) so I can have this significant moment in my life documented. May watch it at times when I need a reminder of what I been through n just 2 capture my real life response 2 my God blessed miraculous release. Wonder if he can bring my daughter along?! Who knows maybe she can hold me in her arms as I breakdown in apologies n promises. Meanwhile with bro picking me up won't have 2 deal with , which way 2 go! He can take me straight 2 my aunts n or P.O.

However with the bus I can get some space 2 think 4 the whole 3 n a half hour bus ride. Cash literally ride n cry, though not sure if I'm gone cry or not. (Can u even plan tears?... Schedule em?) Maybe I'll meet someone n b able 2 share my testimony n or sell a bear I made : )

Lord knows

Once I get an official release date I'll know more

Thanks 4 the happy new year!

Don't think covid left any traces but time will tell

Oops, I lied!

Still can't taste or smell

3 more weeks will put me at the 90 day mark since I had it

So hopefully I won't get it again

If I do I'm definitely gone demand better treatment this time around, starting with true isolation inna single cell!

4 the most part in good health n back working out again!

Plan 2 do some running in bout half an hour

Weights alright but

Nothing like some cardio

But rather play basketball

Did get a white head that left me with a blemish on my face, just under my left eye

Guess it gives me character

Or something 4 people 2 look at!!!

Other than that

Just plotting business stuff

Know I can succeed at having a craft business

Thought I was 2 make a career outta designing clothes but seems my passion has flipped

2day I'm convinced I want 2 design n sell stuffed animals!!!

Maybe its cause all the experience I'm gaining n its less nuts n bolts 2 deal with, n the investment cost is way way lower! Off of $3 I can make upwards of $30. Great margins if I must say so. Plus I enjoy the instant gratification of seeing my own hands accomplishing the task from start 2 finish! (Design 2 manufacturing)

Might do free lance fashion designs 4 company's but...

Right now I'm sold on doing fashionable animals (maybe that's the name?!?)

Who starts a million dollar stuffed animal brand?

Me, I guess.

I'm cool with it

So I'm gone look 2 start that day 1 of my release

Cost all of $20 for a Seller's Permit

Which will allow me 2 officially b open 4 business

I like the sound of that

Well I got 2 head 2 work in a few n need 2 least give God a hello b4 I go!
Had a nightmare that revealed who I'd b if I turned my back on God!!!
N I don't want 2 see me like that
Amen

Alright
U keep growing more beautiful n heart
The best love!

Respectfully
Antoine
