

Where is my favorite Artist during this pandemic?

All fans understand that covid-19 has crippled ~~concert~~ concerts and live performances, awards etc. But what is going on with drop songs on albums for the fans. It's like our favorite artist has went to sleep on us. Where is the music Bro. I am hardcore fan of Usher, Chris Brown and Justin Bieber. But Usher is at the top, then Chris Brown, last Justin Bieber. But I listen to all their music. Usher and Chris Brown makes me dance. But Usher lyric take me a whole another level. In Valentine's Day instead of having a new Usher song. I listen to all of Usher old and current stuff that he made last. Justin had some new previous music. But somebody needs to hit up Bro's Usher and Chris Brown what is going on man. We haven't even seen them on TV. No music. Your fans are desperate for something to come. It's 2021 what the new you look like this year? Usher and Chris Brown?
