What up?

Thanks 4 transcribing my post...

Also Preciate the "good luck" on my journey 2 designing shoes!!!

Wouldn't U know it that days b4 I got ur comments I took a leap of faith n reached out 2 a shoe designer named Darrell Alston!!!

He right up my alley as he did sometime in prison n left with plenty shoe designs (over 250!) N then got blessed 2 meet somebody who knew somebody 2 invest in him n help him start his own Bungee line. His designs also along the lines of my design concepts. Seems we might b a perfect fit! Time will tell,provided he respond back 2 the e-mail I had sent 2 him...

If not its all good!

I won't stop!

Seen Master P gotta nother clothing line so I plan 2 also reach out 2 him! Just gone wait till I get out,as I'll find out how much time I got left on Thursday!!!!

Either way no doubt in my mind that I'm gone succeed as a shoe designer. gone do it the free lance way as I got over a thousand (1,000) might as well make the most bang 4 my Buck. figure I can sell em 4 least $500 a piece. let's go

Also praying 2 come up with some patented design technology I can put on the auction block or license 2 company

Prepared 2 b wooed n wowed!!!

Once I get a Facebook page I'll have em on there from sketch 2 completion...

If not ull find me on kick starter searching 4 funds 2 start my own line...

Alright then...

Thanks 4 ur support

Respectfully

Antoine
