(*Partial from Wm. Shakespeare Sonnet 64)

* "When I have seen, all God gives me to see -
The high-held low-slung of Freedom's sonnets,
Written to age not as I, so more to thee!
Young as Love's words wisdom it's craft perfect -
As immortal, if God shall so-bid stern? -
When I have seen!, to say: "Spoken Passed Mum Universal as well-Founded's concern as far-flung and reaching thy song shalt hum
Beautiful things are intriguing dear fair,
Who'd not have eyes for Love and art to wit?
When I have seen!, as Truth sees unimpaired
