

"SingleService"

A comment reply to a comment on a comment reply... how "meta"!

Actually, I think I messed up, since it looks like I mis-titled my intended comment reply, so it got posted as a new entry called Comment Response. This is a big downside for not being able to see <sup>this</sup> blog myself — I forget formats and patterns and that sort of thing, and end up creating new threads by accident. I think this was supposed to be a reply to a comment by ~~chugakusei, I think~~, from my original post about California rejecting a new law to let some 17 year olds vote.

Oh well, not a huge deal, I suppose. And, it's really nice to see a comment from you again, SingleService! I think you've put up some of the more personal and thoughtful comments on my scribbling, so I'm happy to see you're still at it. Do you see when I send replies to you? I think I've sent 2 or 3 for you, specifically. Not sure. Well, take care, friend. ^
