Subject: southern.

at some point I would like to have an exchange with you about the kind of Music you like , and listen to .

It is my theory , loosely now , not dogmatic about it , that the choice of ones music tells a story about the inner workings of ones mind. even in the choices of our music we find expression. we choose the music that resonate with us because in it, we find elements that we can and do identify with. or it help to expunge certain emotions that we are feeling...

and once we have this exchange of music likes and dislikes , I want to make a play list of songs that I would like you to listen to and give feed back .

this will be like our own music theory session. I must caution you though , I have an awesome ear for music and listening to one of my lists may increase the odds of you falling in LO♥E with me . :-) :-) :-) :-) :-) :-) .

The sonorous & dulcet touches of my selections are Grammy rewarding . in another life I may have been a DJ , or something. O:-) :-) O:-)

If I can switch topics for the reason you can only know , I'm listening to one of my mack lists right now as i type this and that smile of yours keep invading my thoughts , and I kinda of like that, because it tells me something.

I'm listening to Alicia Keys , song called " the life '.

well, I think I'm going to put this to the side for now and wait for the next ph call with .you. it is something I now look 4ward 2.

I was going to rent A movie to watch tonight , but I rather lay back and think of you as I put together , in my mind a mental play list for you. as I sign of , I'm listening to rome, the song selection .... being with held at this time.

until the next time we an speak , I'm with well respected thoughts of you and as I explained before , I'm encouraged by the impossible. Uhuru.
