Thank you for commenting and for complimenting me on my writing. You said something that hit my heart. Continue to better yourself and take care of yourself.

Continue to better yourself. I have been continue trying to better myself. But Growth comes when you freely can be yourself, enjoy what you doing and just live. What if the prison where you at always make it difficult for you to be that successful inmate entering back into society. Are that inmate you living with gets to make it difficult for you to live in a room nothing done about it or get you moved out of their cell just because they want to tell you what to do. What do you do when you a lift everyone up or encourage other that they can do it but when you have situation nobody is their to help you or advocate for you.

Recently I been feeling like I am a inmate that's been locked 25 years. I try to follow their rules. No I am not perfect. But dang everytime I look around it something always changing to try to hinder me or inmate trying to put me in a position to fight them. But I manage to overcome the obstacle with the help of the Lord. But it's very hard not to be able to express yourself.
