Thank you Lilysasy for your comments and sharing with me your Sonorous words . they are greatly appreciated .

I m glad you agree with what I said about how powerful music is and how it holds great influence over what we feel or in helping us expresses what we are feeling. Music at times , is like having multiple theme songs playing in your mind each one you get to pick to help express whats going on not only in your mind but the ambient characters of the milieu , the bystanders , the anticipation of whats to come and the hope of the lead.

Lilysasy , if you don't mind , it would be cool to see a list of you're all time top ten songs. and if you like I will send you one as well. I will even suggest that you play them and tell me what you think, it would be a great exchange.]

a Dialogue through music. Again thank you for reading my Blog page and enjoying the essay/poetry on it.

until I hear from you , Stay F♣cus , and Stay LO♥€™ Uhuru. 5/11/2021
