

Can we candor?

Can we be open about situation through frankness or sincerity free ourselves from ~~pre~~ prejudice and impartiality. Let's treat everyone with love and respect. Stop stepping on other people character by tearing them down just as you can have the spotlight put on you. People, that is not cool. We need to change that. Social media helps us any many ways but it was not created for crams, to bully and tear down others. to make yourself look good or feel good about yourself.
