

Retaliation OR security Brech

It's been awhile since I've had to hand write my blog post, but here we are doing it. see today Thursday July 8, 2021 Sgt. Garrett wrote me a Disciplinary Report because he found 7 cans of dip (stuff) in my laundry bag that I sent out at 5:30am which only had 2 sheets in it when it left my cell. Now either this is an act of reprisal over my essays, Remember where you come from, Hush Hush Keep it on the Down Low, about the woman who overdosed on Lt. Carters prescription drugs that he used to pay her for sex, or one of the many controversial writings about this Administration. or some inmate was using my laundry bag as a means to transport contraband in and out of this building. Now either way, it either shows retaliation or a brech in security. Either way it doesn't look good for this Administration. I'll be telling you more about it over the coming days. But I just wanted to share this little bit with you. God bless you all.

In Peace + Love
