

Rigonism of Afghanistan War

Come on Talibanians and Al Queda please stop this unnecessary fighting. I know you all have a heart. Is all this worth the killing and suicide bombings taking innocent people lives. Some of you on the forces are a father, uncles, brothers, sons, nephews, husband is it worth dying for in leaving your family behind in the name of Taliban and Al Queda or ISIS. Allah does not tell you to harm other. Allah is loving and understanding. Please surrender to humbleness because Allah loves you. No more suicide bombings or fighting. The war has been going on so long. That incident at the airport was uncousful. Please stop in the Name Allah. Afghanistan can be a beautiful place to live if this hatred ~~hate~~ and stubbornness would stop against your own people. You should want to have a beautiful place to live so that people from all over the world want to come visit knowing that no bomb or hateful people will harm them. you could generate a nice income that way. How you build a government is not by tearing your land up and working together. Ask other countries how was your country government establish. The problem is we can be selfish people. We want things done right now. That is not how life works. ~~So~~ I love what - Abu Bakr(r.a) says: It is difficult to be patient but to waste the rewards for patience is worse. It does matter who says you will never can have a government. Because ^{you} never had one. Anything is possible when you plan correctly, work together correctly, no evil attached, no bombing or war. Just sitting down with people saying hey this is my ideal. All this energy that's been put into a war. A government could have been establish by along with Afghanistan built back up. I remember having in my mind I will get my Ged. People like him he been out of school so long. I had patience learning with certain people got on my nerve but I didn't ridicule or sit out to do harm.

because they didn't agree with me getting that education. Are show them hatred and malice. The work of rebuilding and building a government can progress well if the Al Qaeda, ~~ISIS~~ ISIS and Taliban stop this selfishness. A government should have a democratic and republican giving the people choice in they conviction. Is Is, Taliban and al Qaeda I ask you to please have a change of heart and mind so the task can be accomplish the right way. Work together with people who are different and believe different things so how you get things. I know you all have hearts. lets dismantle these organizations work with your people.
