

Letter to Rian in Norway, & Others
sent 26 Nov. 2021

Rian, everyone, my mailing address is: Nate A. Lindell #303724

I never received your letter mailed to my Boscobel address, haven't been there since 2018; just found out that you left a message for me here & am replying immediately.

You ever see the movie Castaway? I'm like Tom Hanks in that movie...wanna be my Wilson? :-)

Seriously, I have two good friends, Camille in France, Doc Zigmond in Massachusetts, and I'd be glad to see if you want to be my Norwegian friend. (I remain alone in here, as few around me are awake or trustworthy.) So, I hope you're still interested in communicating.

If so, please write me again at my above address, include your email, if you'd like to communicate that way. (You'll need to accept the CorrLinks request I send, then look there for my emails -- some people find it confusing.)

It may be presumptions, but if you want to visit via Zoom, let me know, & I'll send you a form. (Due to COVID, they started such visits, which let's me visit with people anywhere on the planet...cool!)

Right now I'm busy w/ litigation, must prepare for the trial about staff in the Boscobel prison setting me up to get stabbed, almost killing me, which was why I was transferred....But I am always interested in making meaningful connections (not many people contact me...).

Hope you're still interested.

Best,
Nate
