" UPDATE DAY 10 OF HUNGER STRIKE"

Yes here we are on day ten. All I'm fighting for is for Secretary Mark Inch to view grievance appeal log# 21-6-24106 which was not addressed. This DR and the grievance appeals was mishandled all the way through the process. I don't know if I'll be able to get them to pay attention to this. But I'm going to try. The one thing we need is a fair and effective grievance procedure. And with them rubber stamping grievances its a big problem. And with the administration being able to do what their doing here victimizing my mother and other family members, is just something that Secretary Inch shouldn't support or endorse. Visitation suspension shouldn't be used as retaliatory measures. And that's exactly what happened here. They retaliated over my writings. Well my weight today is 214, bp 112/84, blood sugar is 79 pulse is 86. So everything is still good. And I'm still fighting to correct this injustice. God bless you all.

In peace love and friendship Ronnie
