

Today's Thought will be a demonstration regarding Affinity, Reality, Communication.

The following blog on THE MAGIC TRIANGLE mentions a Tuning Fork vibration phenomena I want to discuss. It's a matter of science that ENERGY is the essence of everything, clear down to the basic building blocks of the physical universe. "Agitation within agitation" is the basic formation of particles of energy. Such as electrons, protons and others. Hence, EVERYTHING is vibrating energy.

Now there's also the vibrations of Thought impacting the noosphere ([noo- Mind + sphere]; the sphere of human consciousness and mental activity especially in regard to its influence on the biosphere and in relation to evolution). We've all experienced the energy influence when someone is enthused about trying to sell us something we may or may not be interested in. And what about the energy influence from someone enraged at something we may or may not be interested in? THE MAGIC TRIANGLE rings true at either end of the spectrum of consciousness, doesn't it? Like tuningforks, there is a sympathetic influence upon other tuningforks in proximity. Alas, the Group Think phenom where Thoughts react to stimuli, instead of analyzing cause and effect - reasonably.

Imagine the tuningfork thugs resonating in my proximity these past two decades spreading their dis-eased thoughts. Believe you me, the Thought Transmissions in penological environments can cause a lot of trouble, to say the least. Fortunate for me, I've rarely been sympathetic to most troubling group-think, for I see through it. I understand their prevailing F.E.A.R. (False Evidence Appearing Real) projections - and the fact that hurt people tend to hurt people.

I rather prefer analyzing cause and effect - reasonably... through a pure lense of Agape, which is that divine love of 1 Jn. 4:16. Affection based on admiration, benevolence, and/or common interests, permeates agitation within agitation - and often remedies KARMA: the force generated by a person's actions - and their ethical consequences. See: VIBRATION 43: characteristic emanation, aura, or spirit that infuses or vitalizes someone and can be sensed or experienced
