

Reply: xjfj

RC1 Thank you for the encouraging words

I need that because I been going through a storm. Every year at this time. So hard for me. I lost everything due to a criminal case. My children, husband, house basically everything I ^{own} because somebody didn't care about life and liberty in the court room all they cared about is getting so called justice. In the end I don't know what happened. All I know I lost a child to death. Basically case was flawed. I have been in the system 25 years. If I wasn't poor. I would have not been in here. Everytime birthday, holidays and the day I found ^{my} child ~~to~~ not breathing is hard to deal with. I was a parent who loved his family and children. I lost everything. People often think everybody is guilty in prison. But that is not true. Circumstantial evidence is 1st cause of conviction which could be hearsay evidence.

Gennifer Johnson