Dear .kaitl (?),

Happy Holidays! Please forgive me, but when the Ailroom copied your comments, part of your username was cut off so I can't see it all (I really hate these copies!).

Thank you so much for your comments! I know I haven't written in a while, but your comments helped me a lot to know that there's someone out there still reading this. I thought I had lost some readers due to some of my opinions, so hearing from you really meant a lot to me.

I wish you health, happiness, and many blessings in 2022!!

Best Wishes,
