

TX DEATH ROW HUNGER STRIKE ENDS

Wardens here have pulled out the men who spearheaded the strike. a truce was reached, negotiations were discussed. time was requested by huntsville HQ administration. the hunger strike ended day 7. and things are slowly improving ? we have recieved phone calls! as it was part of the pandemic responce to give calls to us as people can not visit always.

The current situation with TDCJ being 10,000 guards short is bad for us all. here its resulting to us being locked in cell 24/7. the wait is like slow torchure. hoping more staff can be provided to run the row.
