

HUMAN ZOO-KEEPERS

Prison guards are the absolute scum of the earth, the lowest. Some slave-keepers have become especially adept at torturing and causing self-debasement to their slave captive-victims. They have such ingenious ways to allow a prisoner to to humiliate and debase ~~and debase~~ ~~themselves~~ themselves. That they don't even come into the picture at all.

Left alone abandoned, uneducated, enduring physical and psychological warfare - unable either to escape or to overcome their tormentor; many captives/slaves will go inwardly, will become self-abusive and humiliate themselves; engage in high-risk self-destructive behaviors, and even commit suicide.

COMMENTARY :

I can see where the fear reaction of the general public is causing much oppression in all areas. I think people are letting fear rule then, making their lives become narrow little circles, all repressed and feeling victimized. Tightening the rules, regulations...Punishment mentality. Taking away more and more freedoms and the most sanctimonious are often the most vicious.

This saddens me and you know and I know that punishment only modifies behavior in front of the petty "tyrant", with no lasting effects, No healing ever occurs, that's for sure, like uh, increase negative cannot equal positive. Well, anyway, I think your efforts are positive and maybe + = ++++

NIMARODAS

In an inescapable , perilous situation do not expend your energies running away when you have no safe place or sanctuary to hide. In this rare instance the odds favors he who stands and fight; even if that were not so it is far better to suffer defeat or death standing than running away.

HUMAN ZOO PRISON

Enslavement of humans behind concrete and steel walls, electric fied, razor-wire fences is insidious barbaric and cruel. This is not the way to treat or transform a person.; this will only deform, oervert and harden his humanity. It was discovered early on if you want to dominate an individual, then destroy his dignity and he'll easily become an obedient slave. Take away all glory and humiliate him, then-he-will-feel-waek,-guilty-and-unwerthy where he can neither conqueror, escapenor avoid or overcome his tormentors; then he will feel weak, guilty and unworthy.

And the best way to destroy his dignity is to cause him to fight against himself. If you fight with yourself you are unwittingly dividing your energies and yourself into two persons; you are becoming split you have willing entered into the world of schizophrenic. You are becoming ill, and diseased. Just your energies will be dissipated, you will become weak, as if your left hand is fighting with your right hand; neither will or can win.

You cannot win in a fight against yourself; so you will begin to feel trapped, condemned and so unworthy that you will be willing to bow down to any stupid person for answers, guidance; any good pretender will do, a hypocrite, this is how cunning people have learn to dominate the humanity of others
