

Hello viewers,

How is everyone doing?
I hope all is well with everyone, which I know you saying things could always be better. Well myself, I been busy writing alot of essays this ~~semester~~ Semester. Some of my essay is 1300 words or more. I love to write, so it's up my lane. I tell you I have learned so much in ART 150, ~~com 120~~ ^{ideas} com 120, Eng 101 and management 307. We just entered mid term. Some of us had mid term test. Anybody attending ~~the~~ a University knows how that is. I don't know if I told everyone that I am double minoring with sociology and business management. My major is business communication. I always take 4 classes. This semester I love all my classes. But their are two that are dear to my heart. Com 120, communication about health, current issues and perspectives. I am taking this class serious. This class teach you things like. The importance of Health communication. You all must read and purchase this book. Athena du Pre with Barbara Cook (Venton). So on module 10 I have to deal a campaign speech. My speech is about Flu vaccination with heart failure patient. How important it is for a heart failure patient to have the flu shot. Second part into that speech. How important it is for children to have their vaccination shots. Once I get some down time. I am going to lead my blog up with articles. In the meantime I want to say to the people of Ukraine we love you and praying for you. I wish Mr. Putin would stop this destruction ~~over~~ over Ukraine. I know prayer changes things. He may not come when you want him to but he is on time God.

Good news everyone I graduate with my Associate of Arts in the summer. I am so happy. I love everyone. Keep your head up. Know that you are somebody special, ~~is~~ you can do anything you put your mind to, even when you have set back keep pushing forward, when they tell you no keep going don't stop because you are conquer over every situation. You will and can overcome anything. It does what the negative people say about you, keep push forward into the destiny God has for. I love everyone, be encourage,

know that brighter days are ahead.
