There have been a flood of inmates that were serving life sentences this year but the governor released them.

Most of them were murders, and I do not think that any of them were sex offenders.

Our society does not apply the same measuring stick as to a rapist as they do murders.

Favoritism plays a strong hand in favor of a murder to attain his freedom.

I have heard it said that sex offenders can not be rehabilitated.

Is this the concenses to my readers as well.

I do not believe that is true at all.

I think it is up to the individual to evaluate him self, that's the start of rehabilitation.

Knowing there's a problem is the start to a healing process.
