Education Dept. murals at Mule Creek, B-Facility:
Mule painting at entrance had a covid-mask stretched between its ear and hoof, before I was asked to paint over it. And the Education mural below was entirely painted over for some reason.

Each of the three murals of bookshelves are painted between the windows of each classroom.

After 8½ years struggle to introduce Scientology lessons to the population, 8½ years neglecting my art skills was presented this opportunity to brighten up the hallway of the Education Dept. — which is continuing to present yet more opportunities to beautify other areas as well.

After 25 years inside, 25 years of effort to influence my environment; I'm permitted to actually see my work manifest — on the walls of Education. My tribute to KNOWLEDGE.
