My appreciation of your enjoying my poetry, and taking the time to extend me a more personal and appreciative comment than a mere "like your writing -or- my favorite" is cherished and heart felt! My Thanks is sincere! It is so hard for me in this administrative segregation confinement... Place me in your prayers that "may I be blessed to be exonerated from this wrongful conviction!" Feel free to share my blog address with friends; family; poetry lovers, and stay a friend!... (Lisa)
