What's that, Denny Hamlin had a heart attack?

Geez, I hope Denny Hamlin is okay.

Apparently, Denny was on a field somewhere, and just, collapsed.

I wonder how the Ruling Elites would feel about technology if somebody developed an app that would cancel out all the mouth-breathing on the TV and radio. I bet you the Elites wouldn't like technology after that. They would all instantly turn into technology-hating Luddites. "Technology bad, mouth-breathing good" ; that's what they would be saying.
