

Prison Death & Murder

To look!, and remember those that died here - a tear from heart; a bow of head: bless those.
This concrete & steel tomb buries here where w/in the high voltage & razor's pose of Death (coming) away gloom burial - It's so sad when they find them - this could be me never waking a revival To Life a living but that anew - Bless me!;
To look and remember!, hurt's heart greater;
Burdened. Oh! Inside looking out knows
The truth and not the spin of Tales' pale Falsified to cover-up ill-wills toll
The Heart shall not forget staff telling them die;
The evil gives no-medical's rely -
