Ms. Renegar,

Thank You so much for your comment. It really means a lot to hear from the woman who inspired me to write. The best E.S.L. Teacher the U.S. has to offer. Thanks to you I can read and write in this beautiful language. So you can tell your students I said that. Sorry it took me so long to respond. I had lost touch with B.T.B., lost the address, moving from place to place. But thank The Creator I was able to get back in touch with them and got back to sharing my poetry. Thank you once again.

Wishing you the best,
Jesus.
