

Holy Inspired words of prose the world will self righteously laugh at

How mysterious are the works of the Lord of preeminence over this world of sin He sojourns through the wisdom of God the Father in heavens Grace Whom instructed those preordained to rightly divide the Word of Truth to show themselves approved as they too sojourn this world in faith shining their light of oneness on the darkness of the false light of Christ...

The stench of decaying flesh betrays the ministry of the false light of Christ for it knows not the Spirit of Truth and therefore does not live through the Spirit of rebirth of which they profess while they vainly deny guilt in the blood of Jesus Christ... This Truth will remain veiled to them as they stay conformed to the world of which their true god rewards their piousness fulfilling the Lords prophecy of the many He turns away!!!

The god of this world keeps his children blind to the Truth of killing the Son of God the Father in heaven through weaving a web of deceit denying guilt in the shedding of Jesus Christ's blood upon the cross while overlooking Jesus' repeated prophecy of being killed something His Disciple's were and continue to be persecuted for lovingly ministering in the Spirit of Truth...

Shame shame on the world of sin everyone initially are born in coming to know Jesus through the false light of Christ while trying to live a schism of both Spirit and flesh blindly confessing and confessing their weakness of the flesh while denying the Spirit of which they profess to crucify Jesus over and over again...

Only the diligent will understand this prose was not written by the hand of man like the holy inspired Word of Truth the wisdom of God the Father in heavens Grace will remain veiled to those under the spell of the false light of Christ as they march to the drum of their god Satan down the highway to hell...
