

There is no schism in the body of Christ

The Spirit of Truth instructs everyone under the grace of God the Father in heaven to live in faith and not the law - for it is said ' He who tries to keep the whole law and breaks just one is guilty of all ! ' This bit of wisdom comes as one matures in the Spirit of Truth and comes to the understanding that when you are reborn in the Spirit you live through the Spirit and not the flesh. The flesh is dead in God the Father in heaven eyes - it was condemned when His Son, Jesus Christ was crucified and given preeminence over the world to fulfill the wisdom of His Fathers Grace, in not destroying this sinful world, Satan is the god of until the end of times . When Jesus turns away all those who failed to rightly divide the word of Truth to show themselves approved of God, His Father in heaven. The self-righteous many who are deceived by the false light of Christ, into conforming to the indoctrination of the fleshly world and its rewards - while remaining veiled to the dichotomy of trying to live in the flesh and Spirit...
