"SEAN RIKER NEEDS YOUR HELP FINDING A PRO BONO ATTORNEY"

Thank you for taking the time to read my words. I serve 200 years in Wisconsin's Supermax for crimes I did not commit. At least once a month I turn on the TV in the morning and I see another wrongful-conviction overturned, but it never fails, the person sought help for decades in order to find it. I've been incarcerated since 2009, (must I wait three more decades?) and I have exhausted every resource available for wrongful-convictions. I am not exaggerating when I say I've written thousands upon thousands of letters to Innocence Organizations, Attorneys and straight up strangers asking for help. Nobody ever does. I've written to every single Innocence Organization in the USA. Even to Sweden, Australia, Canada and Germany... They either cannot help me due to jurisdiction deficiency or their caseload is too full.

I had horrific representation at trial and for my appeal. Public Defenders are extremely limited in what they can provide to their client and I required so much more. I did not get a fair trial.

False allegations, police and Racine DA corruption plagues my case. I have proof. I have DVD evidence that proves the allegations against me as false. There's so much evidence in my case that proves my Innocence, I just don't have the intelligence to put it all together. I need an attorney. I am indigent.

Every single person exonerated after decades is represented by a Pro Bono attorney. These awesome people are solely in it for obtaining true justice and not the money. Last weekend I almost threw out all of paperwork. I almost gave up the fight. I've never been at this stage and it rattled me.

Please help me find a Pro Bono attorney? One that will go over my case with a fine toothed comb? One that is in it for obtaining true justice?

Thank you for your time. Please write? Sincerely Yours, Sean
