

My Reality

Greetings So called Friends,

The way I must view things at this period of my life, may seem drastic and even cold hearted, but my mental health is in the balance. The question I must ask myself is: " Will I, accept inactivity by those calling themselves my friend, to help me improve my situation and circumstance ?" And I have come to the conclusion that my answer to that question is A big NO !!!

After over forty years of sitting on Florida's death row maintaining my innocence and suffering the abuse of having the issues proving, I did not receive a fair and impartial trial suppressed - to the degree of showing a pattern within Florida's legal system that equates to obstruction of justice (Racketeering) successfully and repeatedly covered up - my, finally taking the stance and saying enough is enough is decades over due ... The way I must view things now, is if you are not helping me to reveal the grave miscarriage of justice I suffer - you are part of the problem and I cannot, nor will not, continue to reenforce such behavior for any reason !!!

My death warrant can be signed at any time, and the way things stand - I will be murdered thirty days later - with little to no fanfare highlighting the criminality of what took place, except by my forty plus years of unheard recorded and acted upon pleas for help.....

This travesty of humanity is insignificant when compared to the atrocities going on around the world, but that does not mean the inactivity of those calling themselves my friend to help me advance my cause can be tolerated by me any longer and it will not be !!! Since, I now see the shame has been on me, for allowing such behavior to become a negative influence, that in essence supports and allows the abuse I suffer to continue ...

Earnestly, Milo Rose
