

The Crisis of the 2024 Presidential Election

Clearly we keep going around the same mountain about the election everytime. I am tired of the presidential candidates who run off the same propaganda that was introduce to us in a another race before and I am tired of the voters jumping on the same band wagon that was already presented to the Americans by the pass candidates who ran for president. Everytime thinking this is my guy, I want them in office. Until the ~~pres~~ president or candidate takes office. Its a different story the first time the person dont operate the way the voters wanted them to, American people began to criticize them. I dont like Donald J. Trump when he was in office, he didn't act morally. But we have somebody act morally, President Biden. What do Hunter Biden got to do with the work his dad does? All our children have made bad decision but what does has do with his parent. Hunter Biden is grown. I am tired of the division amongst the media and the American people. There is power in unity, but we so blind till everyone is trying to pend the Democrats against Republicans or vice versa. For this election Please dont choose someone your going to complain about later. Leadership is hard, its not a piece of pie in the sky, people. You have to deal some of the most difficult people in the world.

Especially the president, the whole world is in that person's hand. It's stressful, especially when you have to deal with the fickle people of this country. One minute they want this, the next minute no I want this.

My question is what do you want in a candidate?

Where is your morals card how do you view the world today? These alone will help you decide your votes.
