

Who understand the government anymore?

I don't think anyone understand the government anymore because everything is so confusing. Especially with the Republicans who wants to shut down a government because its got to be their way or hit the road. These are some of the most stubborn people I have ever seen in the government. From our education, being able to eat, pay your bills or even put gas in your cars - basically the whole livelihood is always being dismantled by them. Go throughout history of budget cuts and government shut down its always the Republican wants to cut spending. Usually its Republicans against Democrats now its Republicans against Republicans. Men you need to get it together because the Americans just want the problems solved.

I have never seen a government ran like this one. Usually when a politician gives a crisis speech its about people and surrendering the issues. I was embarrassed that our governor in Georgia was giving a crisis speech during that crisis speech he put President Joe Biden down. That should have never happen during a crisis. that was so out of order. Another thing the people in Georgia is in a crisis stage of gun violence. ~~In~~ In our governor pass a carry law bill for people to carry guns freely. I remember the day when gun was protected in a safe place and children rarely even knew what a gun was. I remember I wasn't even allowed to watch the show "Gun Smoke" in my house until I got a certain age. I talk to a family member the other day on the phone that says she just pray when she see people with the guns on them in the grocery stores in Georgia. She is praying that the person is not mental health. These local politicians has reach out to the governor in Georgia about the gun violence in their area but the governor is yet to contact them. This is involving children, who govern a land ~~and~~ not care about the people well-being and gun violence with the children of this land.

We need to rethink how people are voted for. ~~and~~ When man has been warranted rulership over a nation, country, ~~state~~ or a state ~~where~~ where the people wellbeing is not important anymore. This is a broaden problem for many people in the nation, ~~country~~, ^{Countries} and States. That politicians need to figure out. I am ~~ashame~~ a shame that many of these people has some type of religion Association in their lives. Where is the wisdom to run these nations, countries and state. All you see is selfishness and what the flesh wants. What do the people needs?

This lead me to Desantis the Florida Governor. When Biden come through to view the damage from the hurricane. Instead of Mr. Desantis coming, he sent his team. If your the governor why wasn't you their for your people in that state during the crisis. Out of the 48 years of me being on this earth I have never seen a American leader abandon their people that voted for them to be governor. This was a immature move because the campaign could have been set to the for just a little while because the presidential election is not until 2024. Right now you are governor of the Florida people, how could you leave them hanging like in the midst of a crisis.

Sometimes its the little things that politician do that is just far beyond being the office to overseer and care about the people well being. Another problem I have is this. People stop treating the immigrants less than because they have a crisis in their land. I don't like the way the people talking to them in society such as New York. Yes I seen it on the news. I am embarrassed that our Americans carry on like that in public. I am talking about the over crowding of immigrants in New York etc.

If I had power to do anything about this, I would spread these people throughout America, make them legal and give them a job through temp services so they can take care of their own families. People we fail to realize we are losing people to death frequently, the disparity of life is low. The Birth rate is not the same, why not put them to work and give them a opportunity in America until they prove to us they don't need to be here. I would love to go on a corner see a different type of restaurant or clothing store that I have never seen before. A change is good when we embrace it. Stop mistreating them.

I call home the other day, I learn a friend of mine move to the Virgin Island. I say that to say this, sometimes changes leads to new opportunities. We can teach the immigrants something new and they can teach us something. Its good to have a open mind when it comes to different cultures.

Now on the other hand, president Joseph Biden messed me up by his slowness of action on the crisis in New York with the immigrants. Why did he wait so long to give these immigrants work through temp service so they can provide for themselves and families.

This was a easy fix. Yes the border needs to be manage until somebody spread these people around through out the United States. Not everyone can live in New York I agree, But we have 50 states ok. These people can be relevant to our economy around the world.

The bottom line here is people loves to oppress others. In American there is alot of unnecessary oppression. Such as our children is being oppressed with Student loans. The main people (politician) are fussing about this is the people who had money to pay for college (rich/jwell to do). Everytime a law or bill passed its always, here lately people who are not having the struggles that people in society are having but want to stang a vote because its their personal belief. As said before no man should be on anything when it comes to voting about abortion because they don't have to give birth to the child, has never been rape or incested in got pregnant. I remember having to deal with the welfare with a circumstance. They wanted to go lol, how to raise a child, when they didn't have a child. That pissed me off because how can you tell me how to raise a baby when you never had a child or even adopted a child period.

We have to be careful of the people we give our well being to in these political offices. One person whole life can be turn upside down based on one wrong decision or law passed. I desire to see the young politicians to run for the offices. It time for a newness that we have never seen before. I was happy to see the youngest Mayor in American was 18 years old. This is what we need in the Congress, governors, and house of Representative etc. Young people who is not going to get tired but they know their stuff far as running a government. I remember seeing somewhere over sea

They had young leaders over their tribes. I am talking about young leaders who are humbled and care about people's wellbeing.

I am tired seeing the older people running the polls when you see it on TV. Let the young people run the voting ^{booths} polls, while the older people do the paper work. It's time to ~~train~~ train these young college students to do this and if your 18 years old available they should be trained to run the voting booth/polls as well. Another thing was on my mind stop letting these voting places be so boring - put some ~~new~~ music on softly. This is a time of joy that you are picking someone worthy to be in office. Give the voters danishes, coffee or juice etc. giving pens and little note book pads etc with voters of 2024 et. I feel all voting should be decent inside of a build nobody should be standing in these long lines. We need to change that by using schools, gyms, celliseum etc. We got to make it comfort for the elderly so they can get a joy ~~out~~ of coming out once again. They shouldn't have to walk a long ways either. Voting should be a joy within it self and a time of celebration. It's time to go to the new level of thinking. Last year thinking don't work for this year's problems!
