

Embracing the Normacy for Presidential Candidate in 2024 Election

Even though Joseph Biden was slow on making quick decision on a needed crisis in New York immigration over crowding and border crossing. I argue that he will be a great choice for president of 2024 because he know how to plan and execute the right decision when its needed in the government. Speaking out on certain issue like the Republicans keep causing a government shut down everytime. The president needed to speak out on it. Because they keep causing unnecessary crisis on the American people and government. What is the Republicans favorite thing to do - taking something from the American people especially the people in poverty.

Although some believe the Republicans does a great job, which I beg of difference. I ~~ins~~ insist that everytime they take from the less fortunate its a form of oppression. In sum, then the Republicans view is that they are making the best decision for the American people, when they are for the people who are rich or have comfortable income. Not the people that is poor. I disagree with governments shut down and the Republicans ~~egoistic~~ egoistic ways that point to white privilege symptom. When laws, bills come into effect that is aim to bring a certain group of people in our society to its lowest and government is shut down continuously its target against classicism in our society as well. I recommended that people pay to closer attention to what group is affected by the politician decision-making.

For instance, the Welfare, foodstamps and the WIC program is always on the chopping block. In addition coming up against their own colleague to ~~oust~~ oust him out if he decide with Democrats. People is not about the YOU the Americans anymore, clearly its about the Republicans getting whatever they want in the government. Some might object, of course on grounds that American is paying for a war in Ukraine that has nothing to do with American people. I denounced that people because Americans are attracted at the gas tanks. So yes we are. Did the American people think about that?

Yet I would argue that there needs to be a peace treaty between Russia and Ukraine. People needs to come to an agreement that serves both party. It's not just about Russia nor Ukraine. Because both country is losing out especially the people and innocent children that don't understand why are these people fighting. Maybe there needs to be a change of leadership in Russia.

I don't believe nobody back shouldn't be against the wall to do what the Republican want - but those Republicans who keeps causing the confusion to have the government shut down on a regular basis. Putin needs to go because anyone who cannot make better decision that don't result in destruction. Both Ukraine and Russia has damage to it. The Republicans keeps bringing destruction to our country government. Yet I would argue sometime the plan against the enemy has to be change. Overall a good decision-maker - an important point to make is they don't destroy but build up their countries and neighbors such as President Joseph Biden and ~~Kamala~~ vice President Kamala Harris.
