The Sound Mind Streamer
(LGBTQIA+ Affirming, Education & Wellness Media)

A paradigm shift in how LGBTQIA+ life, education and culture is depicted through incarcerated Institution Television System's. After over 200 years of zero to minimal programming, and after over 12 years of rigorous efforts by The Sound Mind Company here at Condemned Row, in October 2023, the SQTV Media Center broadcasted a movie titled Spoiler Alert. The movie, while an excellent display for progress and inclusiveness, it is however filled with every common Eurocentric focused stereotype, that has dominated the queer narrative in America that has been used by the leader's of homophobic ideations of hatred discrimination and violence, and moreover, continues the method of writer's who are intentionally, chasers of empathy. The Sound Mind Streamer Media program is different in a way that focuses more on affirmation through education for the most underserved demographic of prison media programming.

We feature several TED Talks like:

- Blair Imani, a queer Muslim with nothing to reconcile.
- Jenny Chang, explaining what LGBTQ life is like around the world.
- Molly Webster lecherous delivery of the weird history of the sex chromosome.
- Gabby Rivera and the story of Marvel's 1st Queer Latina Super Hero.
- Democracy Now, episode and interview about an Intersex documentary titled Every Body.
- Sound Mind Streamer video articles about ancient African queer presence.
- Xochipilli, the ancient Aztec Prince of Flower's.
- Chin, the ancient Myan god of homosexuality.
- Homosexuality in ancient China.
- 15 Gay Bisexual Deities.
- What's the meaning of Mahu. Pacific Islander history.

"Silence Gives Consent."

These are just a few of the title's of multiple short video's that run in online streaming format, instead of the usual play of one 120 minute movie on loop for an entire week. It has been our efficacious design to occupy one Institution Television System (ITV) channel Statewide.

They switched the movie to channel 17.1 so alert the villager's before last showing Monday. Out of thousands of videos, they chose to play the Same Eurobised story line, with all of the stereotypical things oppressors use for reason to mistreat the entire village, but at least we got something up after over 150 year's, they do it one time every year just to say they did something.

Saw the movie a couple of times. Can't really see what set you off. Have you never watched Seinfeld or any other "Oscars-so-White" show? Childish Gambino said it best, "This Is America".

Spoiler Alert was a (LOVE) story about 2 ("Privileged") gay characters; whom experienced little 2none of the struggles common in the LGBTQIA Community. The story was "Cliché-ala-American" ... "Okay tell me your story [in a Users Friendly way- but don't make me feel ashamed! - Don't bore me w/your social-justice issues!]

Only when they try 2to "sell" a Cliche as Ground-Breaking or some other overstated crap.

It's all good. Cliche's are why I write. I will have something written 2/4 the Community in the coming months soon. It is why I write 4the Culture!

As Leaders, DIPLOMACY is always essential when addressing power. The first 2thing Leaders in Power observe is diplomacy or the lack thereof. It makes the difference between being heard & ignored, between being assisted or resisted. Lead Pboi, lead.

Ms. June,

Masterfully written, downright spiritual :-)

Thanks for conveying exactly what should be default, culturally set us all off.

I'm aware that most queer GP can't risk losing their endorsement to this campus by being expressive on this issue, their silence is induced.

The closet, or, our "Private Expression" villager's have even more to risk in real time.

Our straight allies operate from a conditioned position of empathy and support, yet have not been educated as to what is considered culturally valuable to our ENTIRE community, and, perhaps even address some ethnographic deficiencies, generational cultural ignorance, and educate for the need of purging incompetency within Incarcerated media programming.

The Sound Mind Streamer, which we will have a premier screening at the Banquet, will display how we are not in need of empathy, we however require equal access to autonomous programming that provides a safe space for engagement of LGBTQIA+ affirming media.

Spoiler alert,

LGBTQIA+ life is more than Eurocentric-male dominated, disease gloom & doom, and sexual deviance narrative's, and it really upsets me when our own ignorance is expected and exploited as a settlements of "Queer filled quota's" as absolvent of responsibility for those intentionally attempting to silence over 150 year's of program exclusionary practices.

Sound Mind Streamer media is our ideation on how to safely administer Queer focused, SELF-HELP rehabilitation, education, recreation, spiritual & wellness programming.

Enjoy your day Queen,
I've got a full work day ahead of me

Gotcha! LGBTQIA 'SELF-HELP, EDUCATION, & REHABILITATION' doesn't seem 2be high on anyone's list except the list of those whom think they can "cure" us or "STOP-THE-SPREAD" of "Them". 8=)

EQUALITY:

It is impossible to provide Wellness resources to a population under siege by generational community rejection, indoctrinated faith based deaminating, and societal neglect.

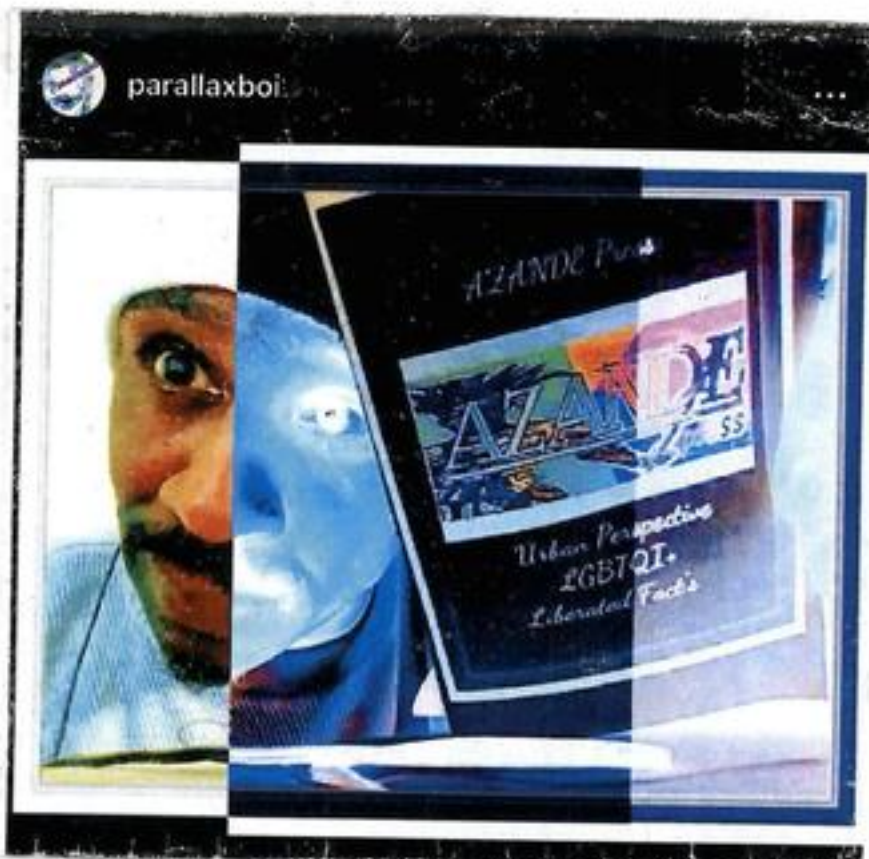

In CDCR and National incarcerated rehabilitation program writer's body of implementations, we discover patterns of lack of attention to the needs of persons that identify to some degree as GAY and particularly in the growing closet ' or as we now say, our "Private Expression Residents".

- #1. When GAY residents experience and view mistreatment, addressed, and covered up abuses, IMPOSSIBLE.
- #2. When 99% of prison programs are directly associated with religious based concepts of wholeness, and mental health blanketed treatments generated, IMPOSSIBLE.
- #3. When GAY parolee's are not allowed to return as mentor's and Influencer's of progress, IMPOSSIBLE.
- #4. When LGBTQIA+ resources intentionally do not effect the entire GAY community, IMPOSSIBLE.
- #5. When ideations are met with, "It takes time" response's IMPOSSIBLE.
- #6. When Education opportunities exclude access to GAY affirming programming IMPOSSIBLE.
- #7. When queer people are silent about being forced into programs that attempt to force participation in programming that exist antithetical to Homosexual Nature and Culture, IMPOSSIBLE.
- #8. When straight ally residents are forced into systemic shamming, IMPOSSIBLE.
- #9. When outside volunteers don't include queer ethnographically sound personnel of color, IMPOSSIBLE.
- #10. When PREA investigators are not provided by independent/ non-correctional employees, IMPOSSIBLE.

Hatred through spitefulness, pretext language that exposes discrimination and bias, and the content devaluations of queer residents need's must come with accountability, in real time from the bottom up, in real time, in the very moment of the violation of the Departments own policies, State, and Federal law's, and Human Rights Protections.

The Sound Mind Streamer Media Program is a safe space road to EQUALITY!
