

Who understand the government anymore?

I don't think anyone understand the government anymore because everything is so confusing. Especially with the Republicans, who wants to shut down a government because its got to be their way or hit the road. These are some of the most stubborn people I have ever seen in the government. From our education, being able to eat, pay bills, put gas in the cars, basically the whole livelihood. Go through history its always the Republicans wants to cut spending. Usually its Republicans against Democratic now its Republicans against Republicans. Men/~~men~~ Women you need to get it together because the Americans just want the problems solved.

I have never seen a government ran like this one. Usually when anyone give a crisis speech its about the people and surrounding the issues. I was embarrassed when our governor in Georgia was giving a crisis speech he put Joe Biden down. That should have never happen. The people in Georgia is in a crisis stage of gun violence. In our governor pass a carry law bill for people to carry guns freely. I remember the day when gun was protected in a safe place and children rarely even knew what a gun was. I remember I wasn't even allowed to watch "gun smoke" in my house until I got a certain age. I talk to a family member the other day on the phone that says she just pray when she see people with the guns on them in the grocery stores in Georgia. What she is pray is that person is not mental health. These local politicians has reach out to the governor in Georgia about the gun violence in their area but the governor is yet to contact them. This is involving children, who govern a land in not care about the people well being and gun Culture clothing and food that I have never seen before. A change is good when we embrace it. Stop miss treating them. Changing the subject because I get upset when people don't try to understand other people position in the social climate. ~~For example~~ For example, I call home the other day, a friend of mine moved to the Virgin Island. I say that to acknowledge that sometimes changes leads to new opportunity (lies). We can teach the immigrants something new and they can teach us something about their cultures. Its good to have an open mind when it comes to different cultures.

Now on the other hand, President Biden messed me up by his slowness of action to the crisis in New York with the immigrants. Why did he wait so long to give ~~them~~ the immigrants work through temp service. Its a common factor that have to provide them and ^{their} family.

This was a easy fix. I feel their should be a balance at the border until they can get everything situation in the United States by spreading the immigrants over the 50 states. I look at it as helping hand to United States far as the economy can rise better ^{than} ever before.

The bottomline here is people loves to oppress innocent people. Especially in America there is humungous amount of ~~unnecessary~~ unnecessary oppression that has develop in the past decades.

Such as why is it that our children is oppressed with student loans, high rent, car insurance etc. What kills me the main people who are fussing about all these social problems can help themselves. Can pay for their college etc. Everytime a law or ~~bill~~ bill is passed its always the Congress, governor, Senator etc that don't have the issues society is complaining about. But ^{are} quick to slung a vote or sign off on something. Because of the individual own belief on the matter. As said before no man should be on anything when it comes to voting on birth control or abortion because they don't have the slightest idea what a woman body goes through. I have been rape, molested and incest but I thank God that I didn't get pregnant. Now this has turned into political karate fight. I remember having to deal with the welfare when I had a situation. They wanted to go lol how to raise a child when they didn't have a child. That pissed me off because how can you tell me how to raise a baby when you never had a child or even adopted a child. Going to parent class, is not just it either. It's take a lot to raise children. you learn as you go. Each child is different, my oldest daughter is total different person from her oldest brother and the baby boy is different than both of them.

We have to be careful of the people, we give our well being (life to) to in these political offices. One person whole life can be turn upside down based on one wrong decision or law passed. I desire to see the young politician to run for offices. It is time for a newness that we have never seen before. I was happy to see the youngest mayor in America was 18 years old. This is what we need in the Congress and House of Representative. young people who is not going to get tired but they know their stuff far as running the government. I remember seeing in another country they had young leader over their tribe. I am talking about young leaders who is humble and care about people's well being.

I am tired of seeing the older people running the polls. Let the young people run the voting polls while the older people do the paper work. It's time to train these young college students to do this.

If their 18 years old is interested in politics they should be trained as well to run the voting booth etc. Another thing was on my mind stop letting these voting places be so boring. This is a time of joy that a person is picking someone who is worthy to be in office. Give the people danishes, coffee, juice, pens and little note books with voter 2024 etc. I feel all voting should be decent. Nobody should have to stand in lines during cold weather etc. Their needs to be changes using school gyms, ~~schools~~ in Stadiums, etc. We got to make it comfortable for the elder so they get a joy of coming out once again. Voting should be a joy within it-self and a time of celebration. Its time to go to the new level of thinking. Last year thinking don't work for this year's problem
