

Before I semi-retire this poetry hand, until I am transferred from these evil grounds maliciously violating my U.S. Constitutional rights — because I am not into celebrating, toasting women disprincipled enough to allow these prisoners to treat them like jack rabbits have been beat out of medications (frequently) by nurses; denied needed eyeglasses and dental care out of jealousy because I refuse to give away my writings). I hope you decide to advocate w/ me to get me of this prison please. . . . I pray you like these poetry post (they are wrote from my heart)

Need You Always!
