

Wrongly Cruel—yet Reversed

How to reclaim the years!, lost to Frozen?—
Victimized by the vice of prison law,
Over & upon imprisonment's pent;
Behind & amid razor & barbs' pain—
Obstructive & oppressive; sewn to Sours'
Sentence indefinite — False Conviction
Is wrong, and is wronging; elonged hours at length destrengthening Lives' depiction
Deliberating cruel & unusual,
An injustice — yet reversed & remand
It's irreversible: "Years upon years
Spun Decades & Decades lost upon Man."
To lock Man in jail w/in jail — bears tears!
Upon the heart & art to craft dual —
10/17/20 Wm. Irving William E. Irving

Times' Unkind

Worn away by aging — or — Times' unkind
Eldering as the grass upon the hill
Don't green all-season when Cold entwines
Agony on False Conviction til —
At cost people what price! worth the truth?
As may vindication ask, and expect
End of the Inquiry's quest to probe both:
up close & Personal — at length inspects
Prosecutions & Persecutions' lore —
And I!, an ambassador-in-bonds here!
Petitioning Advocates' answer sure;
Diligent — so Justice right false-tried here.
I try to survive the elements' years
Withering from cruelty's inflict here —
11/21/20 Wm. Irving William E. Irving