

Okay! I am back again to talk About cellie (2) We will call him Shawn.He is a simpleton and is bossed around by the arrogant cellie.I will give you one of many examples.He orders him to lock up his locker when the jack ass could do it himself.He's right there any way Shawn don't think to ask why he don't lock his own locker up.The bully feeds him just about every night,so I think the simpleton won't risk not getting a hand out.Shawn is supposed to be going home within a year and has promised to give everything to the bully.Neither one of these two guys go outside.They instead sit in the cell the entire day and complain how they have gotten a raw deal in life and that every one in the world has got it wrong both of these guys are racist people.Hateing everything that isn't white.I try and not to engage them in any conversation as I am confident that it won't be wholesome language.I will talk to you about cellie three tomorrow.Good night.
