Today, how air is fresh about morning, kissing lungs stretchhh. I will always be about words. * (I mean to observe and to accept and to take the time to note the specificity of a thing, with delicacy, whether passionate or trashing, is a kind of love) to cling to you like dirt doeth day — refusing to separate. Needed for life to be lived, she

* (Whether it's passionate or trashing, is a kind of love; the State and I applaud and aid their hunting... Hunger is supposed to be fed, like Beauty is supposed to smile — I jog forty-five minutes into the morning dawn, to be worthy of words worth; to become a fraction of the immortalness of Gigi. I plan to support the Tigers full-fledged and whole-hearted that they be fed on fields heartily.

Who'd not attempt to delineate Gigi flawless, practices to bless their hunting of the simple comfort of the Ozarks, and need to unleash the beast it's hunt... To have a heart optimistic and proud, is poetry. To punctuate our need for a little "Thy paw which claws these words out!, raise to thee (just as Gigi Hadid) in hopes thou art ever and hungry to live amongst the elite, eating on playoff fields extraordinary, they feast upon a championship — 6/25/24; W.M.
